READY TO FIGHT.

McAuliffe and Gibbons in Great Shape for the Contest.

New York, Sep. 7.—The eyes of the pugilistic world are now turned to the meeting of Jack McAuliffe, the champion lightweight, and Austin Gibbons. The men will meet in the Granite Club next Friday night, and they should make a grand contest. McAuliffe is favorite in the betting and he has already been backed to win some thousands of dollars. Both men are in splendid condition and both are confident of winning.

The Granite Club has made every arrangement that can possibly conduce to the success of the affair.

To prevent any hitch, such as occurred in the Slavin-Kilbin contest, a new electric time-keeper has been secured. This is a very ingenious affair, and is said to work well.

It consists of a clock, two gongs and two lights, one red and the other white. It is so contrived that the red light will burn for three minutes, and at the expiration of that time it will give place to a white light, which will be a signal for the men to take their corners. The white light burns during the one minute rest and then the red light appears, and both hold forth for three minutes longer.

When a knock-down blow is given the time-keeper will press an electric button, which will set a small gong going. This sounds every second until the tenth, when it will ring rapidly. If it ever comes to that it will be a signal that the fight is over.

The men will be called into the ring at 9 o'clock and will set to without delay.

A Budget of Interesting Articles on all Topics.

John M. Granger, of Girardville, who has been acting mine inspector of the Girard Estate collieries for the past three years, during the illness of the late W. G. Gwyther, will now succeed to that position. Mr. Granger has proven himself a capable and efficient inspector, and is fully worthy of the appointment.

Frank Montler, of Oakland, had his foot badly crushed at East colliery by a rush of coal that caught him in the chute from which he was loading.

The funeral of the late William G. Gwyther took place at Girardville. A squad from Co. F. 8th regiment, had been detailed to fire the last salute over his grave. The deceased was Past Commander of Jennings Post, No. 121, G. A. R.; also a member of Ashland Lodge, A. Y. M., No. 290; Prince of Peace Commandery, K. T., No. 39; Aqua Lodge, I. O. O. F., Shenandoah Valley Encampment, No. 235; Red Men Tribe No. 155. He was 59 years of age, and leaves a wife and nine children.

The Washington Fire Company, of Ashland, has decided to go to Atlantic City on Saturday, Sept. 29th, for a several days stay, during which time they will be the guests of the Jersey fire boys who will hold an annual convention at that famous resort, and which will open on September 27 and remain in session until Oct. 1st.

A man supposed to be John Mennig, of Ashland, Pa., is said to be roaming around Tomhicken and mud as a hare. He appeared at an Hungarian shanty and the sight of his wild, ghastly face almost shattered the never very phlegmatic Hungks. They thought that Satan had come to claim his own. With an unearthly laugh the mad man fled into the woods and the Huns double barred the door.

A Beaver Meadow girl earned $48.75 in huckleberries this year, and will probably turn out in a new seal plush coat this winter.

A Shamokin woman has hired a gang of Italians at 70 cents a day and takes contracts for digging out cellars, drains and sewers away below the regular contractors.

John Perogish was being hoisted to the surface of the Nelson shaft Saturday when his drill, which was resting on his shoulder, caught a projecting piece of timber. This overbalanced Perogish and he slid off the cage. His companions found him dead. He fell 500 feet and was completely disemboweled.

Owing to the increased traffic over Mahanoy branch of the P. & R. system, which is due to the shipments of the coal from the Cox & Co. collieries in the upper regions, it has been decided to double shift all the engines and their crews at Gordon and also the plane hands. The cars are all to go over the Tamaquid branch of the P. & R. and thence to Gordon, and hoisted over the plane at that place. Fifty-two new hands were put on at Gordon Friday, and a notice posted at the telegraph office Saturday morning calls for fifty more.

GAGGED BY ROBBERS.

No Clue to the Thieves Who Maltreated Mrs. Elkins.

Haverhill, Mass., Sep. 7.—Mrs. Elkins of the Elm House, who was roughly treated by robbers Saturday afternoon, remains prostrated and cannot leave her room. The robbery is the one great topic of discussion.

The robbers were two in number, and were masked. They forced their way into the house, seized Mrs. Elkins and demanded her money. She handed to them $35. Presenting a revolver at her head the men demanded all the money she had, saying that she had more concealed on her person. The terrified woman said she had no more money, whereupon one of the men tore open her dress and grabbed a canvas bag containing $800 in cash and $400 in checks.

They then bound and gagged her and fled. There is no clue to the thieves.

FLOODS IN JERSEY.

Much Damage Has Been Caused in the Seacoast Towns.

ASHBURY PARK, N. J., Sep. 7.—The severe rains of the past two days and the unusually heavy surf caused much damage along the New Jersey seacoast towns. Many had cuts were made in the Long Branch bluff. The New Jersey Southern Railway tracks at Highland Beach were undermined by the high tide.

At Browtown, a small Asbury Park settlement, the streets are all inundated and people are wading from place to place. In many houses the water has flooded the first story. Several small sailing vessels were driven ashore at Atlantic Highlands.

HAWLEY FOR THE CABINET.

Honors That He Has Been Offered the Secretaryship of War.

WASHINGTON, Sep. 7.—Private advice received here, state that Senator Hawley, of Connecticut, has been offered the War Office, to succeed Secretary Proctor. Gen. Hawley is at Cape May, conferring with President Harrison about the matter.

Friends of the Senator who are familiar with Connecticut politics, and who regard with doubt his chances for renomination and re-election to the United States Senate as against Governor Bulkeley, think it very probable that he will accept the offer and be the next Secretary of War.

A Big Sale in Straw Hats.

STRAWS show the way the wind blows, but they don't show what hard blows we have been striking at straw hat prices. Some hats are dear at any price; these hats are cheap at double the money. If what covers your head is not becoming to you, all the pates you take as to the rest of your attire are simply thrown away. Come and see how you will look in one of our big straw hats. There's no use in giving any further description of them than to say this—they are stylish. We cut the price down because we want to cut our stock down. Another big bargain in hats is our 21 black stiff hats.
